

“At Methodist Le Bonheur Healthcare, we are committed to providing the highest quality healthcare in a safe environment for all of our patients. Complex medical decisions such as these are always determined by a physician in consultation with the patient, and many factors play a role in any medical procedure being performed. We work diligently to partner with our community of physicians to set standards for the highest quality care for our patients.”

Dawn Ray
Director, Strategic and Executive Communications
Methodist Healthcare